

Wedding Celebrations

at River Cottage HQ, Park Farm, Devon

River Cottage HQ is a fantastic setting for a wedding celebration. We are based on the Devon / Dorset border in 65 acres of organic farm land. Our beautifully restored threshing barn, with it's oak floor and large windows, is a glorious space at any time of the year.

The River Cottage kitchen team never disappoint, cooking up wonderful celebratory dinners, using the very best local produce.

As River Cottage HQ is yours exclusively for the day, guests are welcome to wander the gardens and smallholding at their leisure or perhaps relax in our yurt or out in the walled vegetable garden from where we often serve the welcome drinks.

Food & Drink

All of our menus are put together using the finest local and seasonal ingredients from the West Country, as well as using produce grown and reared here at River Cottage HQ. During the planning of your wedding, we will arrange for you both to meet with one of our chefs, where you will design your menu together.

We stock a wide selection of organic and local wines, beers and champagnes, however should you wish to supply your own, we will not charge you corkage.
